Resident Advisor / Resident Success Coach

Please address the following questions:

a. Describe how you would address academic or economic challenges for students within the residence halls.
b. How would you also work with students who are first generation college students or lack of family university knowledge?
c. How would you support residents to build a community within their residence hall as well as with the campus community?
d. How would you adjust for a student who is academically, socially, and economically challenged?

Contact for more information: Joe Stusynski, jstusynski@lssu.edu