

Fall Fling 2011
Academic Open House
2:30 – 5 pm

Aquatic Research Lab: Cloverland Electric Building on the St. Mary's River. Tours of this facility will be available from 2:30 – 4:30 pm. Transportation via Laker Vans will be available from 2:30 – 4:30 pm to and from the KJS Library parking lot. The last Laker Van will leave the parking lot at 4 pm.

College of Arts, Letters, Social Sciences, & Emergency Services: Arts Center 215. Featuring the School of English and Language Studies, School of Social Sciences and School of Communication Studies and the Fine and Performing Arts; please stop in to ask questions of faculty and staff about the degrees and opportunities available to you at LSSU. Faculty and staff will be available from 2:30 – 5 pm. Programs include: Communication, Creative Writing, English, Fine Arts Studies, French Studies, History, International Studies, Political Science (General, Pre-Law, and Public Administration), Psychology, Sociology, Sociology-Social Services, Social Work, Spanish Studies, and Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment.

School of Biological Sciences: Crawford Hall 207. An informational presentation about our programs will be available at 4 pm. Programs include: Biology, Biology (Pre-Professional: Medicine, Dental, Veterinary, and Optometry), Conservation Biology, Conservation Leadership, Fish Health, Fisheries and Wildlife Management, Medical Laboratory Science and Natural Resources Technology.

School of Business: Library 203. An Informational presentation about our programs will be available at 3:30 pm. Programs include: Accounting, Business Administration (concentration in International Business, Legal Management, Management, and Marketing), Finance and Economics, Information Processing, International Studies, Legal Studies, Office Administration, Personal Computer Specialist, and Technical Accounting.

Career Services, Liberal Arts, & Undeclared Majors: Lower Level Library. An informational presentation about Career Services and what it means to be an Undeclared major will be available at 3 pm. Additional open house visitation will continue until 5 pm.

School of Criminal Justice, Fire Science, & EMS: Library 278. Informational presentations about our programs will be available at 2:45 pm with facility tours in the Norris Center to follow the presentation. Programs include: Criminal Justice (Emphasis in Corrections, Criminalistics, Generalist, Homeland Security, Law Enforcement, Law Enforcement Certification, Loss Control, or Public Safety), Fire Science (Emphasis in Engineering Technology, Generalist, or Hazardous Materials), Paramedic Technology, and Paramedic Training.

School of Education: Brown Hall. Informational presentations about our educational programs and the admission process will be available at 3 pm and 4 pm. Available concentrations, admission, and graduation requirements will be discussed. Programs include: Curriculum and Instruction, Secondary Education, Elementary Education, Early Childhood Education, and Special Education – Learning Disabilities.

School of Engineering and Technology: CASET 125. Informational presentations about our programs will be available at 2:45 pm and 3:30 pm with facility tours to follow each session. Programs include: Computer Engineering (Option in General, Control Systems, or Robotics and Automation), Electrical Engineering (Options in Digital Systems, Electrical/ Mechanical, or Robotics and Automation), Engineering Management, General Engineering, General Engineering Technology, Industrial Technology, Manufacturing Engineering Technology, and Mechanical Engineering (Options in General, Vehicle Systems, or Robotics and Automation).

Honors Program: Ontario Hall. Students interested in learning more about the LSSU Honors Program are encouraged to visit Ontario Hall, residential living for Honors Program students, between 2 and 4 pm this afternoon to learn more about the program and to view living facilities. Accepted students with a 3.0 cumulative GPA and 27 ACT composite score will be invited to participate in the Honors Program.

Learning Center: Lower Level Library. Please visit the Learning Center from 2:30 – 5 pm to learn more about the services available. The Learning Center provides academic support services and strategies for success for all enrolled students. Our services assist students in achieving academic success, gaining scholastic independence, improving self-esteem, and preparing for graduate study.

School of Mathematics and Computer Sciences: CASET 303. An informational presentation about our programs will be available at 3 pm. Programs include: Computer and Mathematical Sciences, Computer Information Systems, Computer Networking, Computer Science, Internet/Network Specialist, Mathematics, and Mathematics-Actuarial and Business Applications.

School of Nursing: Crawford Hall 204. An informational presentation about our programs will be available at 3 pm. Programs include: Health Care Provider, Nursing, and Practical Nursing.

School of Physical Sciences: Crawford Hall 207. An informational presentation about our programs will be available at 3 pm. Programs include: Applied Geographic Information Science, Chemical Technology, Chemistry, Chemistry (Pre-professional: Pharmacy), Environmental Chemistry, Environmental Health, Environmental Management, Environmental Science, Forensic Chemistry, Geology, and Geology – Environmental Geology.

School of Recreation Studies and Exercise Science: Norris Center 120, Athletic Training Room. An informational presentation about our programs will be available at 4 pm. Programs include: Athletic Training Education, Exercise Science, Health Fitness Specialist, Parks and Recreation, and Sport and Recreation Management.