

Bachelor of Science

Criminal Justice - Generalist

The Generalist emphasis is designed for students currently working in the field of criminal justice and are interested in obtaining a bachelor's degree to advance. This program provides credits for academy completion and encourages students to select upper level criminal justice, business or management courses. All of the requirements for this program are offered at the regional center.

Program Highlights

- Courses offered evenings and distance formats
- Courses offered on a part-time basis
- Flexible schedules designed for busy adults
- Personalized advising and assistance
- Experienced and caring faculty

School of Criminal Justice

Students are required to apply to the School of Criminal Justice and must be admitted before taking LSSU 300/400 level business courses. See Regional Center Director for more requirements.

"Choosing LSSU's Escanaba Regional Center is definitely a sound investment. I was able to earn my degree without having to travel or move away from home. All of the necessary resources were readily available to me. I was very glad to have chosen LSSU. They offer quality education right in our own backyard."

- Nicole Crawford
Escanaba Regional Center graduate
