

Michigan Collegiate Virtual Job Fair

April 9th—20th, 2007

The colleges and universities coming together for the MCVJF are proud to announce their involvement in the annual Michigan Colligate Virtual Job Fair.

Applicants can register at www.MichiganVirtualJobFair.org ON 4/9/07.

Who: Graduating seniors or alumni seeking full-time, professional positions or students looking for internship, co-op, or part-time career-related jobs.

What: Michigan Collegiate Virtual Job Fair. An opportunity for job seekers to view employer “virtual” booths that include job postings, company information and contact data 24/7. Candidates interface with employers via the Internet through private virtual interviews.

Where: From the comfort of your home or wherever you have internet access.

How: It's FREE and it's EASY. Interested participants visit www.MichiganVirtualJobFair.org April 9 - 20, 2007 and submit their resume to job postings via the website. Ideally posting during the first week will give you the best advantage. Starting during the week of April 9, 2005 candidates can interface with employers in virtual interviews.

Sign up on 4/9/07 and after by going to the web site at:

www.MichiganVirtualJobFair.org also visit for questions and key contacts.

Why: The Michigan Collegiate Virtual Job Fair may be just the place to find that full-time, part-time, internship/cooperative education or career-related summer job you are looking for.

The MCVJF is sponsored by the Michigan Association of Colleges and Employers, the Michigan Collegiate Job Fair Organization, and the Michigan Council for Cooperative Education.
