We have received information from your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) that you are unable to provide parental data on the form. To determine your eligibility for financial aid, more information is necessary.

Please verify your status and submit the requested information to our office.

You can not submit the information because:

- Your parents are both deceased. Submit copies of death certificates.
- Your parents are incarcerated. Submit evidence of the incarceration.
- You have left home due to abuse. Submit Dependency Override Appeal.
- You are self-supporting due to circumstances beyond your control. Submit Dependency Override Appeal.
- Both of your parents refuse to provide information for you to file the FAFSA because they no longer support you or provide for you in any way and you do not live with either of them.

Parents must submit a letter that clearly states when parental support ended. Parental letter must include reason for termination of financial support. You must also complete an Expense Statement showing how you support yourself, a copy of your Federal Income Taxes, and a letter of explanation.
Note: If parents refuse to provide letter, contact the Director of Financial Aid for further instructions.

If you can not submit the required documentation within thirty days of filing your FAFSA, your FAFSA will be deleted and you will need to start the process over. Please contact our office if you have questions or if you need to correct your FAFSA information.

Sincerely,

Deborah J. Faust
Director of Financial Aid
