

F-1 Student with Dependents

A student in F-1 status may wish to bring his or her spouse or unmarried children to the United States. A dependent of an F-1 student must obtain an F-2 Visa from the embassy or consulate by presenting an I-20 Form issued specifically to the dependent.

The student with a dependent(s) will be required to produce financial documentation proving the student's ability to support the entire family. For the 2017/2018 academic year, the student must show financials in the amount of $6,162 per dependent in addition to the financial documentation required for the student.
