The END of TRACDAT?

Well, it is the end of Tracdat 4.9.1 since this summer will see the release of version 5, with a refreshing of the user interface and navigation. Training resources will be available for departments in late summer and throughout fall 2015.

Have a safe and relaxing summer, and please document your assessment of student learning, program or departmental goals, progress on strategic initiatives or other activities before next fall's convocation week.

P.S. Just as a reminder: Any faculty member or department can submit assessment summaries directly using Tracdat, or indirectly using an alternative format. To do the latter simply prepare a short summary report, following a format that uniquely fits your department, school or college, or use a template like that in the attached example (also available at <http://www.lssu.edu/assessment/documents/AssessmentActivityLog.docx>). Reports can be stored on a shared network drives, emailed to tracdat@lssu.edu or sent by campus mail to D. Myton in ADMIN206.
