Please complete form in blue or black ink. Incomplete forms will not be accepted.

On your FAFSA you indicated that you or someone in your family is a dislocated worker. Please complete this form and submit supporting documentation to verify the dislocated worker status.

In general, a person may be considered a dislocated worker if he or she:

- Is receiving unemployment benefits due to being laid off or losing a job and is unlikely to return to a previous occupation (excludes seasonal workers)
- Has been laid off or received a lay-off notice from a job
- Was self-employed but is now unemployed due to economic conditions or natural disaster; or
- Is a displaced homemaker. A displaced homemaker is generally a person who previously provided unpaid services to the family (e.g., a stay-at-home mom or dad), is no longer supported by the husband or wife, is unemployed or underemployed, and is having trouble finding or upgrading employment

If a person quits work, generally he or she is not considered a dislocated worker even if, for example, the person is receiving unemployment benefits.

If the loss of employment caused your 2017 or 2018 income to be substantially lower than your 2016 FAFSA reported income, your financial aid can be reviewed to reflect your special circumstances.
