Overarching Goals of Investigation & Adjudication

Collect

Utilize
- Utilize a process where the parties are treated fairly and impartially

Analyze
- Analyze the evidence in a thorough and reasonable manner

Write
- Write a hearing report that illustrates you did all of the above
Interviewing Tips

- Give the witness very little specific information about the allegations
- Last question is a catch-all

Sharing evidence “directly related” to the allegations

- Consider restrictions on use and non-disclosure agreements
- Develop document-sharing protocol
- Tips for keeping timeframes “prompt”
Creating investigative report summarizing “relevant evidence”

• Use logic and common sense

• Toss out old rules/practices regarding categories of information permitted (except for three situations)
Relevance IS

■ Tends to make a fact more or less probable than it would be without that evidence
■ Logical connection between the evidence and facts at issue
■ Assists in coming to the conclusion – it is “of consequence”

Relevance IS NOT

■ Strength of the evidence
■ Believability of the evidence
■ Based on type of evidence: circumstantial v. direct
■ Based on complicated rules of court
Special categories of evidence that are off-limits

- IRRELEVANT: Complainant’s prior sexual predisposition or prior sexual history (with two exceptions)
- IRRELEVANT: Information protected under a legally-recognized privilege
- CAN’T USE: Medical, psychological and similar records without written consent of party
HOW TO CONVENE A HEARING
Pre-hearing work

- Confirm advisors for each party; appoint if necessary; consider having back-ups available
- Figure out who will be requested to attend
- Explain to the parties what to expect
- Establish ground rules and structure of hearing
- Consider convening a pre-hearing conference
- Make logistical and technology decisions (including recording, having info available for parties, and remote access)
“Submitting to cross examination”

• What this means

• What does NOT submitting to cross examination look like?

• Consequences of NOT submitting to cross examination
Managing the questioning process

- Order of questioning
- Making thoughtful rulings on relevance
- Brainstorm and prepare for hearing scenarios
Remember special categories of evidence that are off-limits

- IRRELEVANT: Complainant’s prior sexual predisposition or prior sexual history (with two exceptions)

- IRRELEVANT: Information protected under a legally-recognized privilege

- CAN’T USE: Medical, psychological and similar records without written consent of party
Decision and written determination

• Use disciplined, unbiased evaluation of relevant evidence

• Include specific elements required by regulations
Concepts we use to evaluate evidence

Relevance
- Tends to make a fact more or less probable than it would be without that evidence
- Assists in coming to the conclusion – it is “of consequence”

Reliability
- Accurate
- Trustworthy

Weight
- The value you assign to the piece of evidence
Fun activity applying evidence in a sexual harassment matter

1. Unwelcome conduct (subjective and objective)
2. Severe
3. Pervasive
4. Objectively offensive
5. Effective denial of equal access to school’s education program or activity
Required elements in written determination

- Description of procedural steps from complaint through determination
- Findings of fact
- Conclusions regarding application of policy to facts
- Rationale for each result of each allegations
- Sanctions/remedies
- Appeal options (must permit appeal)
Grounds for appeals

- Procedural irregularity that affected the outcome of the matter
- New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that could affect the outcome of the matter
- Title IX coordinator, investigator, or decisionmaker had a conflict of interest or bias for or against complainants or respondents generally or the individual complainant or respondent that affected the outcome of the matter
- Any other grounds, as long as offered equally to both parties
