

Resolution No. 2021-06

Introduced by: Vice President Millen

A RESOLUTION TO: call on the department of Campus Life and Housing to change the current alcohol policy to an open alcohol policy in all residential halls.

WHEREAS, the current alcohol policy can be confusing to students due to some residential halls being wet and others being dry.

WHEREAS, it creates a better opportunity to educate the students effectively about safe consumption of alcohol.

WHEREAS, it can reduce the rate of students consuming alcohol off campus. Thus, decreasing their potential of drinking and driving, and our students walking back to campus from various locations during later times of the night.

WHEREAS, it makes a clear policy for Resident Advisors and Campus Life and Housing staff that anyone in any resident hall over the legal drinking age may consume alcohol.

RESOLVED, The LSSU Student Government will encourage and promote this policy change to improve safety and to educate students more effectively.
