

Resolution No. 2021-07

Introduced by: Representative Sands
Co-Sponsored by: Vice President Simons

A RESOLUTION TO: to call on the University Administration to create a fund for departmental and international student employees to be able to receive compensation for economic loss incurred due to quarantining.

WHEREAS there are numerous students who have been impacted by the institutional policy for quarantine due to possible exposure to COVID-19.

WHEREAS these students lost the ability to earn the money that they normally would have earned during the two-week quarantine period.

WHEREAS there should be a fund for departmental and international student employees with a setup similar to the fund in place for federal work study student employees.

WHEREAS this resolution supports LSSU Student Government Objectives 2021-4 and 2021-5.

RESOLVED, the LSSU Student Government will advocate to the administration to create funding for departmental and international students employees that have been impacted by the quarantine policy of the University.
