

When you filed your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) for 2021-2022, you reported actual income information from 2019. If your family circumstances have substantially changed since January of 2020, reducing your ability to contribute to your educational expenses, you can request a review of your special circumstances. Students are awarded initially based on 2019 information from the FAFSA. A re-evaluation is not an assurance that you will qualify for need-based aid, or if already eligible, will qualify for additional aid. Using professional judgment to adjust your FAFSA information is done on a case-by-case basis. Furthermore, except for the Federal Pell Grant, any new award is contingent on the availability of funds at the time the re-evaluation is made.

Special circumstance adjustments for job reduction or loss are subject to change if the income you anticipate for 2021 is not accurate. Please wait to appeal until you are reasonably certain of your projected income for 2021, including unemployment.

Some reasons include:

- a) Unemployment or retirement of a student or spouse
- b) Death or disability
- c) Separation and Divorce
- d) Loss of untaxed income or child support
- e) Unusual medical expenses (in excess of 11% of AGI)

If your family circumstances fall within one or more of these criteria, please follow these instructions:

1. COMPLETE THE SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES FORM.
2. FURNISH THIS OFFICE WITH SUPPORTIVE DATA FROM THE APPROPRIATE PERSON(S) OR AGENCY(IES) ON THEIR LETTERHEAD STATIONARY.

For example:

A letter from a doctor indicating date of disability, and any other information pertinent to the disability should support disability of a wage earner. In addition, a statement from each source of income indicating the amount provided per week or month and the duration of support.

Supportive data may involve a statement from a doctor, a lawyer, or employer, Government Unemployment Office, Social Security Office, Death Certificate or any other pertinent documentation.

3. IF YOU HAVE NOT ALREADY DONE SO, YOU MUST SUBMIT VERIFICATION OF YOUR 2019 INCOME ON THE FAFSA. Verification requirements are met by using the IRS Data Retrieval on the FAFSA or by submitting a copy of the Tax Return Transcript for 2019, and completing a Verification for an Independent Student form for 2021-22.
