They won their first two games of the tournament but fell in their third game against Boston College. The Lady Lakers ended the regular season with a 26-3-1 record. In just their second season, the team spent most of the season ranked number one in the nation, and earlier in the month, they brought home the Central Collegiate Women’s Hockey Association, Division II Championship.

- To mark the official end of winter and signal the arrival of spring, the university continues its 51-year tradition of hosting a snowman burning. The university first began burning the snowmen in 1971 to celebrate the end of winter and mark the start of spring.

- LSSU was honored to host the renowned author Angeline Boulley in early March in a tremendous event in the library where she read selections from her book, Firekeeper’s Daughter, and shared insights.

- Dr. Hanley welcomed Robear Assinewe-Beaupre to LSSU in his role of Native American Center Student Support Advisor. In addition, he will also coordinate events and cultural learning opportunities at the university’s Native American Center.

LSSU will be returning to an in-person graduation ceremony for 2022. The speaker for 2022 will be U.S. Senator from Michigan, the Honorable Gary Peters. Sen. Peters has been a strong partner of LSSU for many years.

VII.  Finance Report

Dr. Alyan presented to the Board, a review of dashboards and a summary for the FY22 General and Auxiliary Funds. The GF year-to-date revenue is at 83% of budget, normal for this time of year. The GF year-to-date expenditures are at 73%, normal for this time of year.

For Auxiliary Funds (AF), the housing budget has collected approximately 92% of the budgeted revenue; a little low for this time of year. Expenditures are around 64% of budget, 10% lower for this time of year. The reduction in revenues is almost matched by a reduction in expenses, anticipating the original estimates for a surplus of $350K still holds. The Cisler Operations budget is expected to meet its budget goal of a $230K surplus at year-end. Approximately 90% of the budgeted revenue has been collected, slightly lower than expected for this time of year. Expenditures are much lower than expected at this time of year, at 60%. The Athletics budget is anticipated to have a slight deficit at year-end. About 52% of the budgeted revenue has been collected, lower than the typical 63%-70% collection for this time of year. About 73% of the budgeted expenditures have been expended, a bit higher compared to years past. Given the values, the year-end position of Athletics is trending toward a loss of about $150K for FY22.

Dr. Alyan provided the Board with an update on cash balances. The overall balance is about the same as it was for the last Board meeting. The balance remains higher than previous years due to spring tuition and some state funding that was recently received. The cash balance is better than past years’ balances at this time.

Mr. Lukenda stated that despite COVID, it appears that departments are managing their expenses and the institution is overall on track.

Dr. Alyan confirmed Mr. Lukenda’s statement and acknowledged Dr. Beazley and Student Affairs for their efforts in reducing expenses.

Dr. Alyan provided the Board with an update on COVID funding provided to date, and how it has been allocated or spent. For FY22, about $1.43M of HEERF III funds have been credited to various LSSU Funds for loss of revenue due to COVID. Approximately $600K went to the General Fund, $585K to Cisler Operations, $103K to Fleet, and $51K to Athletics. In total, LSSU has received approximately $11.3M in HEERF dollars for LSSU’s use, or student aid.

Dr. Alyan provided the Board with an update and comparative review of various financial metrics of LSSU and to demonstrate how they are used by external agencies, such as HLC, Standard & Poor’s (S&P), U.S. Banks, potential lenders, and auditors, monitor the financial health of LSSU, and other institutions as a matter of practice. Multiple ratios are used by the HLC, from which they determine a Composite Financial Index (CFI). Many agencies recommend institutions achieve a CFI > 3.0, however, the HLC requires that it not fall below one (1.0). LSSU’s CFI in FY21 is the highest it has been in many years in 2011 was 2.3, in 2020 -0.08, and for 2021 4.68, the highest ever.

Mr. Lukenda acknowledged Dr. Alyan and the significant improvement in financial ratios.

Dr. Alyan provided the Board with an update and review on Foundation and University investments held by LSSU over the last ten years. A portion of the endowment is captured each year, based on a calculated 4.5% of a rolling average. The funds are used to provide student scholarships. Over the last ten years, the University endowment balance has grown from $7.7M to $16.3M. The Foundation balance has grown from $5.6M to $24.3M over the last ten years. Investment totals for both endowments are $40.6M. LSSU endowments are based on growth due to market performance.

Mr. Lukenda acknowledged those involved with fundraising and investment efforts.

Dr. Alyan provided the Board with an overview in planning activities surrounding the development of the FY23 General Fund budgets for LSSU. Budget planning for FY23 includes preparation for a presented budget at the May Board meeting, earlier than years prior. Budget planning has included a set of conservative assumptions that will allow for a balanced budget at the beginning of FY23. LSSU anticipates a 3% reduction in expenditures from FY22, with most units making progress towards that goal.

Dr. Alyan presented to the Board for approval, Room and Board (R&B) rates for FY23. LSSU has reviewed local market conditions and examined rate increases at other institutions. LSSU has averaged a 2% R&B base rate increase over the last several years. The Environmental Fee that was separated in preceding years, is now included but will continue to be recorded as $95/semester. Dr. Alyan presented a request to increase the R&B base rate by 2.75%.

Mr. Bailey moved for Board approval of a 2.75% increase to the Room and Board base rate for FY23; supported by Ms. Caruso. The Chair requested a roll call vote. The results of the roll call were:
